RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Kirkpatrick & Lockhart Preston Gates Ellis LLP ("K & L Gates"), incorrectly named in the caption, responds to Plaintiff George Dziamniski's ("Plaintiff") Motion for Default Judgment as follows:

- Plaintiff filed a Complaint against K & L Gates on or about May 8, 2007, 1. as reflected in the record.
- 2. On June 1, 2007, K & L Gates received, by Certified Mail, a copy of the Complaint and a request that service be waived. K & L Gates did not return an executed Waiver of Service of Summons. Because the non-return of the Waiver of Service was inadvertent and K&L Gates does not wish to put the Plaintiff to the trouble or expense of service or to further delay this lawsuit, K & L Gates is willing to waive service of the Complaint and Summons in this matter, or its undersigned counsel will accept service by mail.
- 3. On June 22, 2007, the undersigned counsel entered their appearances on behalf of K & L Gates in this action.

- 4. K & L Gates admits that it received correspondence from Plaintiff regarding this case on July 3, 2007, when it received the Summons and a copy of the Complaint by mail.
- 5. However, pursuant to the Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4, service is not effective by sending a summons via Certified Mail. Instead, Rule 4 provides that a Case 2:07-cv-00604-DSC Document 7 Filed 08/03/2007 defendant must be served by either (1) by delivering a copy of the summons and the complaint to an officer, managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized to receive service; (2) by delivering a copy of the summons and the complaint to an agent authorized to receive service; or (3) in any manner provided for by state law. Sending a summons to an in-state defendant by Certified Mail is not an effective means of service, and therefore, K & L Gates has not been properly served as of this date.
- 6. Plaintiff has not properly served a copy of the summons and complaint on K & L Gates, nor its attorneys of record, and therefore, the time for K & L Gates to respond has not lapsed. Without waiving the right to object based on improper service, K & L Gates is filing, concurrently with this response, an Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint.
- 7. Entry of a default judgment cannot occur until there is proper service on the defendant and the time for response has expired without an appropriate response by the defendant.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Kirkpatrick & Lockhart Preston Gates Ellis LLP respectfully requests that this Court deny Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment in its entirety.
